

A LAWMAN'S KIND TREATMENT OF A PRISONER

Acts 27:1-5

Theme: The increasing impact of Paul on a ship set sail

WBC, Sunday a.m., October 12, 2025, Pastor Dan Unruh

I. ON BOARD “A SHIP OF A _____” (1-5)

A. The Ship's D_____

The year is most likely AD ____.

Paul's desire to “see Rome” (Ac 19:21) on his way to Spain (Rom 15:28) was not an excursion of pleasure, but of p_____ (Rom 1:15).

B. The Ship's C_____

Paul had sailed s_____ routes on his missionary journeys – he had been this way before!

C. The Ship's M_____

1. C_____

2. C_____

3. P_____

a. “*W*__” = Paul, Luke, Aristarchus

One could also say that _____ was also on board.

b. “*Certain o*_____ prisoners”

Luke's word choice indicates that these prisoners were of a d_____ sort than prisoner Paul.

c. “Julius a centurion” and his “soldiers”

“Courteously,” a compound Greek word that means “love for man,” is where we get our word “p_____.”

Jesus Christ, man's Righteous J_____,

(“Who will judge the world in righteousness” - Ac 17:31)

is also the guilty sinner's Merciful E_____.

(1 Pt 3:18, “For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the Just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God....”)

II. ON BOARD “A SHIP OF A _____” (6-44)